Prussia on the Rhine. The lew words in the last telegram about Prussia may interpreted to mean nothing remarkable or to mean great deal. This power is about to mediate with arms its hands, and just as it puts in motion a great army the direction of the Rhine. What it will propose, it of course not definitely known; but every relation of sentiment that controls this Court, thus far, is to the that it will make common cause with the Court of Austria, so far at least as to plant itself on the Vienna attlement as the basis of European order, and that its roposition will be modifications of existing bases rather an radical changes. This has been, certainly, the tone everything that has come from this quarter, or that has borne an official stamp. There is nothing, therefore approbable in the report which came prior to the Adende's news, that Austria had consented in full to all Prussia's propositions, and that the basis of those proas the concession of a milder rule by Austria. But it is difficult to see how terms of this sort can be crepted by Louis Napoleon. THE TURCOS OF THE FRENCH ARMY .- A letter dated Novara, June 4, to the London Telegraph, says:

The Turcos are a collection of Arabs, negroes, Spaniards and French. The same costume, the same flag 246,680,194 and the same spirit belong to them all. Their faces are fierce-looking; their features strongly marked; their manners are rough and reckless; their language is a jargon of all the known and unknown tongues, and finds expression in sharp, short, emphatic words, admirably adapted to military service. Their audacity is astounding, all the more so because it is natural to them, is not in any way put on, and is the daily habit of their lives. Their recklessness has in it something of the terrible, for LIVER INVIGORATOR. they care no mere for their own lives than for the lives LIVER INVIGORATOR. of others. I yesterday visited the camp of the Turcos. Their manners are most strange. ROSIN-Since our review of Thursday last the market has ruled quiet for all grades, and the transactions have been confined to small lots-the finer qualities being at lower figures than previously noted. The receipts of Pale have been meagre, and there is only a small quantity on market; no demand, however, and prices have a downward tendency. We quote sales of only 2 a 300 bbls. at $3 to $3 50 per bbl., as TEGROES suffering under all diseases, with the excep- | gre, and there is only a small quantity on market; no de-I tion of such as are contagious, will be treated in this mand, however, and prices have a downward tendency. EVER WORN BY KINGS OR EMPERORS. What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair. Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, worse still, if sprinkled with grav, nature will lose than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and udge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist. NEW YORK, April 19, 1859.

I am, dear sir, yours truly, S. THALBERG. "Drych a'r Gwyliedydct." Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau st., A ril 12, 1858. Prof. O. J. Wood :- Dear Sir .- Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.

NEW YORK, July 25, 1857. Prof. O. J. Wood: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. Prof. Wood-About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last.
